Your prework for Session One is to be submitted on the first Friday night of the course. Please staple it to a Cover Sheet. Additional work will be due on the second Friday night of the course.

This course examines worship within The United Methodist Church including liturgy, sacraments, and special services. Attention will be given to the pastor's role as leader in worship.

Students will be able to:

1. Articulate a theology of worship consistent with the Wesleyan tradition, including reflection on the theology and rhythm of the Christian year.
2. Articulate a Wesleyan theology of the sacraments and be competent in their administration.
3. Interpret theologically the rites of Christian marriage, and of Death and Resurrection, and be able to lead such services well.
4. Construct a worship service, and reflect theologically on the use of hymns, media, contemporary music, and lay leadership.

Assignments First Weekend:

1. Read Sunday Dinner by William H. Willimon. Select one of the chapters and write a 2-3 page sermon based on the text for that chapter. Your sermon should reflect an understanding of Willimon's thoughts in that chapter. You may agree or disagree with those thoughts in your sermon. Write a paragraph as to why you chose that chapter.
2. Read Remember Who You Are by William H. Willimon. Write a 2-3 page paper on who you are in light of your own baptism.
3. Write out your usual Orders of Worship (copy of bulletin if possible). Include one for normal a normal Sunday Worship Service (not Holy Communion) and one for Word and Table. Do a (double-spaced) commentary on the Order of Worship for each service. Include descriptions of all of the actions that were performed by the minister(s) and congregation (i.e. standing, bowing, singing, coming to the Communion Table, etc.). Also include a rationale for the various parts of the service: the lessons read, the prayers offered, the hymns sung, the sermon preached, etc.
4. Read "This Holy Mystery" and "By Water and the Spirit"
